Below is a rather silly story on what Tom eats for breakfast. Write it again, so it makes more sense!

I eat a very small breakfast. I eat eight slices of toast with ham and jam. Yummy!

Then I eat a glass of milk. Sometimes I eat hot chocolate, or drink some yoghurt.

On Sunday, I have fruit salad with bacon, and drink two fried eggs with it.

If it is very cold, I drink some butter with honey.

In the summer, I have muesli with cheese.

BREAKFAST AT TIFFANY'S BY DEEP BLUE SOMETHING

Fill in the missing words. Use the words from the box.

You say that we've got in common

No common to start from

And we're falling apart

You'll say the world has come us

Our lives have come between us

Still I know you just don't

(Chorus)

And I say "what about Breakfast at Tiffany's?"

She said, "I think I the film,

And as I recall, I think, we both kinda like it"

And I said, "Well, that's the one we've got"

Match the sentences.

I see you,

And now your eyes

I guess

So what now?

And I hate

When so much

I was wrong

the only one who knew me

see through me

when things are over

is left undone

It's plain to see we're over

(Chorus)

Order the lines.

___ You'll say the world has come between us

___ You say that we've got nothing in common

___ And we're falling apart

___ Our lives have come between us

___ Still I know you just don't care

(Chorus x3)

Care - Between

Thing - Ground

Remember

Nothing

___ No common ground to start from

(Chorus x3)
