

The Carnival of Venice

(1)..... Italy's most beloved carnivals, particular mention (2)..... to the Carnival of Venice.

The first official document with which the Carnival of Venice was (3)..... a public celebration dates back to 1296 - an edict by the Senate of the "most Serene Republic," (4) the day before Lent a holiday.

Established (5)..... the Venetian oligarchy as a concession to the people, its (6)..... was fun and merrymaking, where the mask dominated as a means to briefly ignore any (7)..... of belonging to social class, gender or religion.

Today the Carnival of Venice is an evocative and much-anticipated (8)..... fest, unique in terms of its history, its masks and its atmosphere. (9).....-reputed and appreciated in all the world, it brings (10)..... of tourists to Italy (11)..... year.

(12)..... the Lagoon's two-week Carnival celebration, all can watch and take (13) in the numerous events and displays (14)..... the piazzas and main waterways of the city.

As in the past, private parties and masquerade balls (15)..... happen behind the scenes today, (16)..... Venice's grand noble palaces. In these places, (17)..... time seems to stand still, guests (18)..... jump into this world of ancient splendor, reliving the Carnival tradition of (19)..... ago.

Some of the (20)..... spectacular moments during the Venetian carnival are the "Flight of the Angel" (or "Flight of Colombina"), a (21)..... that began with a Turkish acrobat in mid-1500s. In this amazing spectacle an artist in flesh and (22)..... hangs from a metal cable, and, suspended in air, makes his (23)..... from the top of St. Mark's Bell Tower to the Doge's Palace. It is a magnificent (24)..... to see!

Venice, city of art and UNESCO World Heritage Site, exudes its charm all throughout the year, but only Carnival can render it even more (25)..... than it already is!

CARNEVALE di VENEZIA

Brazilian Carnival

Each year tons of tourists go to Rio de Janeiro, São Paulo, Salvador, Recife and other important Brazilian cities to take part in the most famous Brazilian celebration: the Carnival.

It's usually in February, starts on Saturday (some cities start the celebration on Friday) and lasts until the next Tuesday.

Traditional samba dancers.

Rio de Janeiro

The most important event of the Carnival in Rio de Janeiro is the Parade when all of the "Samba Schools" perform to people on an avenue especially set for the occasion. Each samba school prepares a song theme (or "samba") and while it's sung by the samba school official singers, the samba school members pass through the streets dancing "samba", wearing costumes and some go on floats. The floats, the singers, the members and the costumes have a unique theme, based on a story that is narrated by the "samba theme". It's common to see Brazilian and foreign artists participating in the parade.

São Paulo

São Paulo city also has a popular parade that is similar to the one in Rio de Janeiro. Carnival Balls are also common, people wear costumes and dance samba until 4 a.m. The most important clubs promote carnival balls each night, from Friday to Tuesday and in the afternoon there's a matinee ball for the kids.

The most popular character is the "King Momo", each city chooses a heavy man to wear the "King Momo" costume and he participates in the Carnival Balls, especially for the kids. He's also called "the king of Carnival".

Frevo dancers

Olodum

Salvador, Recife and other big cities

In Salvador people dance on the street, following the "trio elétrico", that is a truck with a band and some singers on it. They play during all the night and the people dance while following them.

In Recife each "trio elétrico" plays and sings another rhythm - besides "samba": the "frevo", that is danced wearing costumes and holding a kind of small umbrella. It's a popular rhythm during the Carnival. In Salvador they also have the "Olodum", a famous group that participated with Michael Jackson in some of his hits recordings when he was in Brazil.

Try to identify the pictures and match the words:

() FLOAT (Samba School Parade - São Paulo)

() FREVO DANCER JUMPING DURING THE DANCE (Recife)

() FREVO DANCERS (Recife)

() Michael Jackson singing with Olorum Group (Salvador)

() OLODUM GROUP (Salvador)

() SAMBA SCHOOL PARADE (Rio de Janeiro)

Answers: 1 - Samba School Parade (Rio de Janeiro); 2 - Float (Samba School Parade - São Paulo); 3 - Frevo dancers (Recife); 4 - Olorum Group (Salvador); 5 - Michael Jackson singing with Olorum Group (Salvador); 6 - Olorum dancer jumping during the dance (Recife)

The Notting Hill Carnival

In multicultural Britain, there are a lot of different festivals. People celebrate the Notting Hill Carnival in London during the last weekend in August. There are big processions through the city. People wear fantastic costumes, and they dance in the streets. Musicians play steel drums, and people sing songs called 'soca'. Disc jockeys also play music in the street, it's very loud!

The origin of the Notting Hill Carnival says that immigrants from the Caribbean started the carnival in 1964. Now lots of people can participate in the carnival and two million people celebrate every year.

If you can't travel to Rio de Janeiro, you can come to the Notting Hill Carnival! It's a fantastic party with great music, fabulous costumes and delicious food. I'm sure you'll enjoy yourself here.
