Shop Assistant: Good afternoon, can I help you?
 Customer: Yes, please. I'm looking for something special for a wedding.

Shop Assistant: What were you thinking of? A dress or trousers?
 Customer: I think a dress would be better. A light dress, the wedding is in the south of France in June.

Shop Assistant: Perhaps cotton would be better. What about this selection? It's a little bit more expensive but there are so many different possibilities.

Customer: Can I try some on?
 Shop Assistant: Of course, Madam, take your time.
 Customer: I rather like that pale mauve one. Have you got it in size 38.

Shop Assistant: Of course. May I suggest you try this light blue one too.

She goes to the fitting room to try them on.

Customer: I think I'll take this light blue one, thank you for showing it to me!

Shop Assistant: I was sure you would like it, your eyes are nearly the same colour.

Customer: How much is it?
 Shop Assistant: £295.
 Customer: It's a bit more than I wanted to pay, but I'll take it. Can I pay by credit card?

Shop Assistant: Certainly, madam.
 Customer: Here you are.
 Shop Assistant: Just put your pin code in, please.
 Customer: Thank you very much for your help.
 Shop Assistant: Don't mention it! Have a nice wedding.
